EDJE Technologies presents employee awards

EDJE Design of the Year

Jay Peterson, EDJE web design team

For design of the Tulelake-Butte Fair (tbvfair.com) web site. The award is voted on by EDJE employees.

EDJE Team of the Year

EDJE print design team/Design Ink: Connie Barbour (team leader), Shari Holloway, Erin Larsen, Jonina Searl, Hayley Moss, and Amy Tlach

EDJE Rookie of the Year (employee who has been with the company less than one year)

Warren Garrett, EDJE sales team

Tlach said selecting the award recipients this year was particularly difficult.

“As our company continues to grow, we have been fortunate to hire some very talented people,” he said. “That makes these selections even more difficult. The team award is new this year and I like it because we ask our people to work in teams, which are able to better serve our customers. The print team is especially strong at providing outstanding customer support.”

Several local leaders joined EDJE employees for lunch: Ken Bresnan, Indianola mayor, Amy Duncan, Indianola Development Association board member, and Doug Shull, Warren County supervisor. Darcy Johnson from Wells Fargo Bank in Indianola and Arlen Schrum of Shull and Company in Indianola also had lunch.
